Charman appointment for RCC

Expanding award winning consultancy Redfern Contract Consultants Limited has further grown its team with the appointment of Peter Charman as Operations Director. Charman, who was most recently National Operations Manager at Carrier Controls Ltd, brings with him almost 20 years of experience in the commercial consultancy sector. His impressive portfolio also includes spells with Satchwell Controls, DMS Controls, Matrix Control Solutions and Building Automation Solutions (BAS) as well as several other Specialist Sub Contractors.

Owner and MD of RCC, Andrew Redfern, explains; "The continuing growth of the business means we now need a director of operations to ensure we can manage our increasing portfolio of clients whilst still maintaining the same standards of efficiency, quality and tailored approach. We wanted Peter right from the start. His experience, ability and personable character sets him apart in what is a very difficult industry for our clients. Having Peter as part of our team will certainly enhance the capabilities of RCC to the benefit of our customers. This appointment reinforces our commitment to serving the commercial and contractual needs of Specialist Contractors in the very best way."

Since 2002, RCC Limited has been providing comprehensive commercial and contractual support services to specialist construction companies both large and small on a wide variety of projects. RCC is recognised for providing value added commercial, financial, contractual, planning and risk management advice and support to specialist construction industries throughout the UK and Europe. The Consultancy's aim is to help clients work more efficiently, reduce risk, protect and improve margins, win repeat business and avoid disputes.

Peter Charman says joining RCC was a "simple decision". He says; "I have long been an admirer of what RCC have done over the last 11 years, offering expert commercial and project management support services to the specialist subcontractor. I hope I can supplement an already excellent team and look forward to further develop existing client relationships, along with bringing new opportunities within the specialist subcontractor market"

RCC Limited has the enviable reputation and experience of working with the very best BMS, Fire & Security, Low Voltage and Energy companies throughout the UK and Europe at both management and project level.
